

The FCC supposedly regulates the airwaves on behalf of the American people. The airwaves are public property; we the people own them. It amazes me that the FCC has held only one public meeting to date concerning this important and complicated issue and has failed in properly educating the American public on the impact and ramifications of the rule changes.

I feel very strongly that media outlets -- television, radio or print -- should not be a monopoly!!! One Clear Channel is enough...or should I say too much!!! Deregulation has made radio a disaster much less diverse, less inclusive, and less involved with local communities. I would hate to see the trend continue.

I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.

Please listen to the voice of the American public!!
